

BCCI Member Club Representatives,

British Car Council Long Distance Awards for 2017

I am pleased to announce there are 46 members of British car clubs in the British Car Council, who have achieved the necessary minimum of driving their British cars 3000 miles in 2017 and will be awarded a BCCI Long Distance Award dash plaque. This is the highest number of people achieving the 3000 mile goal since the program got underway in 2003. Congratulations to all! Dash plaque awards are to be distributed in late January.
